

As a citizen of the United States, I have a right to comment on the proceedings of the FCC. I am opposed to allowing monopolies to determine the fate of the Internet. I support Net Neutrality with strong oversight of Internet service providers (ISPs) as backed by Title II. Please do not allow fast-talking swindlers to take away my access to an open and equally represented Internet.